TOURS & SAFARIS CAR HIRE

3 DAYS 2 NIGHTS MIKUMI NATIONAL PARK

Mikumi National Park is bordered to the south by Selous Game Reserve, the two areas forming a unique ecosystem. The vegetation of this area consists of savannah dotted with acacia, baobab, tamarinds, and some rare palm. Mikumi was named a National Park in 1967 and currently has an approximate size of 3,230 km². Mikumi offers a unique wildlife experience with a large number of herbivores (buffaloes, giraffes, elephants and zebra) and a rich variety of bird species (more than 400) identified. On the hunt for all the herbivores, you will find large crocodiles, and of course lions and leopards.

What to expect:

Day 1: Dar to Mikumi

Pick up from the agreed point, airport, hotel, or ferry, and drive to Mikumi National Park, which is approximately a 5-hour drive. Stop in Morogoro for lunch and proceed to Mikumi National Park. On arrival in the park, you will immediately visit the Masai Boma. After your visit, you will be brought back to the lodge for relaxation, dinner, and overnight.

Day 2: Mikumi game drive

After breakfast, we start on a full-day game drive to spot animals in Mikumi national park. One of Mikumi's features is that it's stretched across a big plain, so you have the ability to spot a lot of animals. Mikumi National Park host animals like lion, elephant, buffalo, impala, zebras and many other wild animals. Enjoy your lunch at the picnic campsites in Mikumi national park. Head to the hotel for dinner and overnight stay at Camp Bastian Mikumi.

Day 3: Departure

We'll have an early morning breakfast, and afterward, we'll drive back to Dar es Salaam via Morogoro town. On arrival in Dar es Salaam, you will be dropped at the ferry for the second or last ferry to Zanzibar, or we can drop you off at the airport or hotel.
